

1. First arrival at Dire Dawa, preparing for the drive up to Haramaya University (altitude 3000m). Liz Levey, an OER consultant to the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation in Africa, on the extreme right.

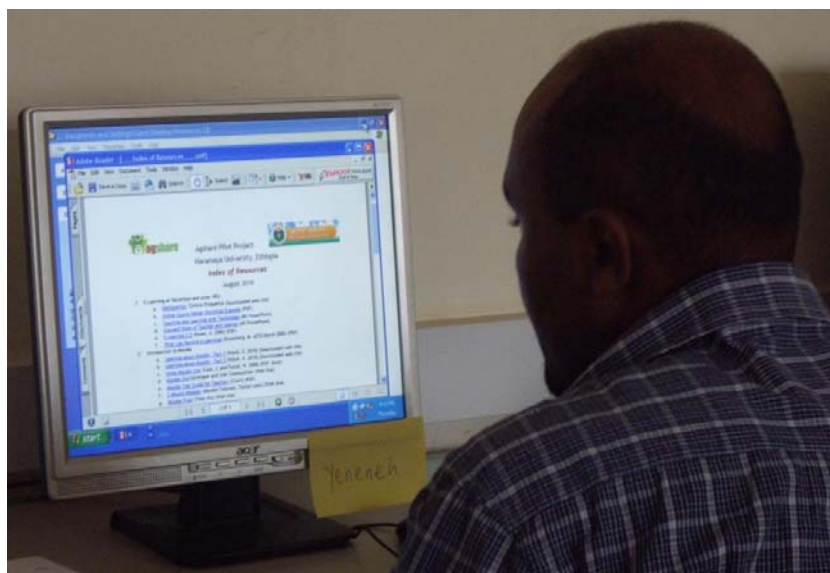

2. James Swash (Blue Matrix) and Nicholas Kimolo (FLOSS4EDU) hard at work outdoors at the HU Resource Centre.

3. Amare Adhena (HU RDAE) and Catherine Ngugi (OER Africa) in discussion.

4. Workshop participant engaging with the AgShare resources

5. The 'Wireless Tree' on the HU campus.

6. Haramaya University campus is set within agricultural farm land in the eastern highlands of Ethiopia.

7. Viewing the video footage for the AICM pilot: Catherine, Clea, Amare and Endalew. (including vuvuzela!)

8. Amare, Clea and Brenda at dinner in Addis Ababa at the conclusion of the second visit.

